Reports

Mr. Sutlief reported on the following: Normally we are discussing and passing the world's best workforce plan; however, with the chaos of Covid, it is extremely difficult to proceed with the majority of the components missing.

Mr. Petermeier reported on the following: Varsity athletics are still in session. Currently, the volleyball team has suspended its season, but it will return to action on November 19. Football is still in action and will host a playoff game on Tuesday, November 17. If they win that game, the next game would be at home on Saturday, November 21. There is also a Jr. High Girls' Basketball coaching position available.

Mr. Vedbraaten reported on the following: The status of the current education model, K-12 distance beginning on Monday November 16. The learning model will be in effect until November 30. He also brought up Governor Waltz's most recent executive orders.
